Capoforte CX 240

Absolute Pleasure

For those who want to approach a new way of enjoying pleasant days at sea, CX 240 is the ideal and surprising choice. Like its big sister CX 280, this boat is designed to concentrate high-level equipment and comfort in a small space. The central cockpit is dominated by the driving seat, with its reclining backrest, acting as a bench facing the stern or as a complementary table to the L-shaped sofa. Also in this case, the generous volumes of the hull are exploited to create a welcoming cabin in the lower deck area. The chromatic choices and the leather and chromed steel finishes of the bow sunbathing area are the setting for a successful representation of concentrated luxury and absolute comfort, without forgetting the remarkable performance offered by the outboard engine and the streamlined but always safe hull.
